

As if you needed further proof that we are well on our way to achieving world dominance, our very own Todd Dery will be a panelist on "More Sports With Les Levine" tonight on Time Warner cable channel 15. The show airs at 6 PM tonight, and the replay airs at 11 PM. Click inside for all the details.

In our never ending quest to grow and to open ourselves up to our readers, tonight, one of our own writers, Todd Dery, will be a panelist on the popular "More Sports and Les Levine" TV show.

The show is broadcast on Time Warner cable channel 15 at 6 PM with a replay at 11 PM. This hour long show will give our readers the chance to ask questions and give comments to one of our key writers. This "Cleveland Sports Year in Review" episode will cover all bases with The Tribe, Cavaliers, and Browns. Are the Dolans being cheap or being smart by showing fiscal constraint this off-season? What is holding the Cavaliers back from dominating the very weak Eastern Conference? Why does it seem the Browns can never get out of their doldrums? Dery and the panel will attempt to answer all of these questions tonight at 6 PM. They will be taking calls throughout the show at 216-575-0403, so feel free to call in and get a chance to discuss the state of Cleveland sports with local sports talk legend Les Levine and one of our top writers here at TheClevelandFan.com.

Click here to visit the website for Les's show