

In an effort to try and persuade people to join the growing community of sports talkers on the Swerbs Blurbs message boards, I randomly select one forum member each 90 days to win a $50 gift certificate to the restaurant or retailer of their choice. Our most recent winner was "jd jr" who chose Dinos III on E 305 in Willowick as his destination of choice. Register for the boards now ... it takes about five seconds, and there are no strings attached.
