

The Crystal Ball - March 13 Releases

Not a huge week for releases at the theaters and on DVD this week, but the News & Rumors section of this week's Crystal Ball is a veritable treasure trove of juicy info on big projects in the works. In that section, Mitch tells us all the latest on the "24" movie, "Iron Man 2", "Spider Man 4 ... as well as the latest projects Sean Penn, Keira Knightley, and "Slumdog Millionaire" beauty Freida Pinto are working on.

Once again, I had someone from the Entertainment Industry contacting me due to catching something snarky I said about someone in the News and Rumors portion of this column. Damn Google Alerts!

This time, it was one of the writers from the upcoming Richard Pryor biopic, set to star Eddie Murphy. The interesting news from him is that Don Cheadle was actually considered (which is what I advocated), but was considered too old. Despite my concerns, they're pretty confident Murphy can handle it.

Not that anyone out there is really losing any sleep over MY concerns. At least I should hope not.

I'm also hoping that Tom Cruise doesn't utilize Google Alerts, or else he's going to contact the Mother Ship using his Scientology Super Secret Communication Device, and send L. Ron Hubbard's ghost to come haunt me.

For more yucks and giggles, my wife Clarissa and I will be discussing Comic Book movies tonight on "THAT'S Entertainment" on BlogTalkRadio. Tune in at 8 PM tonight at <http://www.blogtalkradio.com/TheClevelandFan/2009/03/14/THATS-Entertainment>

As most of you know, I often like Comic Book adaptations. Clarissa? Not so much. Should be an interesting "discussion".

News and Rumors

~ Keifer Sutherland has confirmed rumors that it is his desire to have the upcoming "24" movie filmed in Europe. He also stated that he would have loved to have an entire season filmed there, but it just didn't work out financially. But for a two hour movie? Yeah, he can do that.

~ New release dates have been announced for all of those upcoming Marvel Comics movies. "Iron Man 2" is set for May 7, 2010; "Spider-Man 4" will come out on May 6, 2011; "Thor" - June 17, 2011; "The First Avenger: Captain America" is moving from May 6, 2011 to July 22, 2011. And "The Avengers" film will now be released on May 4, 2012 instead of July 15, 2011.

~ Sean Penn is in talks to star in "Cartel". Penn would play a man trying to protect himself and his son after his wife is murdered by Mexican drug lords.

~ Rumors have "Slumdog Millionaire" beauty Freida Pinto in line to be the next Bond Girl. That would definitely work for me.

~ Keira Knightley has stated that she is through with Elizabeth Swann-Turner, and will not be returning for a fourth "Pirates of the Caribbean" movie. Instead, she wishes to get the part of Eliza Doolittle in the remake of "My Fair Lady".

I'm thinking she's making a wise choice.

~ Joaquin Phoenix. You and your stupid act have passed their "sell-by" date. Please go away.

Stupid Remakes and Sequels

~ Vin Diesel has announced that he'll be doing a third Riddick movie. I guess it's a perfect fit; as I'm not sure what sucked more in "The Chronicles of Riddick"...the story or the actor.

This week's new movie releases:

Nothing that I feel any burning desire to go out and see.

Race to Witch Mountain

Starring: Dwayne Johnson, Carla Gugino, AnnaSophia Robb

Plot: A cab driver in Vegas picks up a couple of kids, who turn out to be aliens on the run from a nefarious organization.

The BeerBuzz: Expect this to be the box-office winner this week. It's said to be relatively faithful to the original 1975 Disney film "Escape to Witch Mountain";

However, the critics haven't been too kind to this one, as it's reported to be pretty lame.

Last House on the Left

Starring: Garret Dillahunt, Monica Potter, Tony Goldwyn

Plot: A group of scum buckets led by a prison escapee decide to try to hole up at an isolated house. Which turns out to be inhabited by the parents of a girl the baddies had earlier kidnapped and nearly killed.

View Trailer

The BeerBuzz: This one may do a little better business than you think, because the promoters have learned a lesson from "Taken", and really emphasize the fact that this is a revenge flick, with the parents doing all the "justified" torture and killings of the criminals responsible for hurting their daughter.

Miss March

Starring: No one you've ever heard of before. Or ever will again.

Plot: A dork is about to lose his virginity when he falls down stairs and goes into a coma for four years. When he comes out of it, his mission is to complete his quest with the girl, who is now a Playmate.

The BeerBuzz: This is going to be no different from any of the other recently released crude sex comedies like "College" or "Sex Drive". It's going to absolutely tank. The fact that it's hitting around 10% on the Rottentomatoes is totally irrelevant.

New DVD Releases for Tuesday, March 17

Twilight - Teenage girls everywhere will be in line at Wal-Mart on Tuesday to buy this one. A huge hit from last November, it's a PG version of "True Blood", with a bunch of vampires who look like high school students.

The main focus is on the vampire Edward (Robert Pattinson) and his relationship with the mortal girl Bella (Kristen Stewart)

Punisher: War Zone - A few years ago, Marvel came out with a Punisher movie starring Thomas Jane that was so bad that it pretty much ruined Jane's career. Well, this one is even worse...although Robert Stevenson isn't exactly someone who has a great career to ruin, despite the fact that he was pretty good as Titus Pullo in "Rome".

God is about as bland personality-wise as Superman, so we'll see how it goes. Kevin Kidd (Rome) is said to be playing the title role.
